

Premier Grain^{LLC}

"Helping Farmers Feed the World"

We are pleased to announce that beginning September 1st, 2013 the grain division will be changing its name from Sabina Bunge, LLC to Premier Grain, LLC. This change is exciting for us as we will now carry the "Premier" name all customers have grown to recognize us by.

Nearly a decade ago Bunge North America and Sabina created Sabina Bunge, LLC to help bring our customers marketing opportunities in specialty grains and the global marketplace. Today this partnership is 99% owned by Sabina Farmers Exchange, and Bunge owns 1%. As the markets have changed we now want the option to work with companies that can bring additional opportunities to you, our customers. However, we did not want to lose the marketing advantages Bunge North America is bringing you today. So the good news is we will still be able to offer you the Bunge Alliance Advantage Program just as we always have. We will also plan to work with Bunge North America each and every time it will bring you more value. So dissolving Sabina Bunge, LLC will not create any problems for you, Bunge North America or us, but it will add more opportunities for you!

When doing business with us, you will notice no other changes except our name on your contracts and your checks. It will be business as usual with all the same people you now work with each week.

We are eager to provide you with our 100% support as Premier Grain, LLC whose mission remains "Helping Farmers Feed the World".

We look forward to continuing service to you. If you have any questions regarding this change, please give us a call. We are happy to answer any question or concern.

Sincerely,

Premier Grain, LLC
